Form 990, Part III, Line 4a Statement of Program Accomplishments

Public Health Messaging & Education: Because of past education and extensive training in matters of preventative health and basic health care, Empower Tanzania was able to dispatch a team of more than 60 Community Health Workers, Community Health Educators, and Birth Attendants to deliver crucial health information on the front line of our overall response to Coronavirus pandemic. The women were ready to use their past training to become the first responders in 2020. 50,000 flyers were distributed in the 31 wards where they live with accurate COVID-19 information to government offices, healthcare facilities, public markets, motorcycle taxi stands, bus stops, community organizations, churches, mosques, businesses, and other prominent locations throughout the Same District. This information was also distributed electronically on social media channels and via WhatsApp. Staff continued to find innovative ways to spread important public health information throughout the region: with the support of the District Executive Director (DED) and the District Medical Officer (DMO), Empower Tanzania staff rented a vehicle and a sound system and logged hundreds of miles in three different districts spreading accurate public health information. The announcement covered the all wards in the districts of Rombo, Mwanga, and Same. Volunteers and staff in the US and Tanzania worked together to create and send a Power Point presentation and succinct data on COVID-19 in Swahili to hundreds in government leadership, social workers, educators, healthcare providers, police, religious leaders, other NGOs, community leaders, Rotarians, and all other Tanzania contacts. The document included a description of the disease, modes of transmission, symptoms, and prevention and care measures.

These items were also shared with radio, newspaper, and television media.

Reproductive Health Relationships Program (RHRP): The RHRP pilot is now complete except for data analysis, but the teachers continue their student education, demonstrating the ongoing cost-free sustainability of the program. A proposed three-year scale-up of the Reproductive Health & Relationships Program will enable it to encompass all the remaining 64,542 students and 2,022 teachers in the 234 schools of Same District, Tanzania, including government, Catholic, Lutheran and Islamic schools. Monthly newsletters for the RHRP teachers and students continue to be produced by staff and volunteers to provide updates, share stories, and answer questions

Beyond Gender-Based Violence turning Fair Trade Program: Though production was limited in 2020 due to the communal nature of creation and the risks of COVID-19, a fair trade committee worked diligently on a brand and logo system (pictured left), research and development, customer discovery, and a viable business plan that will ensure the future success of this social enterprise.

Farming Programs: Empower Tanzania invested in six acres of verdant farmland in Kirinjiko and staff in Tanzania has begun to develop this land as a center for training farmer-entrepreneurs. With funds raised in 2020, they will soon invite local farmers to reimagine ways of producing food and increasing crop yields through modern techniques. With the right infrastructure and education, farmers in Tanzania can grow enough nutritious food to feed their families and communities, preventing hunger and malnutrition and prompting investment in education and in their communities. Throughout 2020, we raised nearly $15,000 to launch this program, which will lead to giant gains in crop production, better health, and stronger communities.

Phase One: Build a pavilion used for classes and to house market stalls to sell product. Phase Two: Train groups of 10-100 local farmers on modern methods, hybrid seed and fertilizer, and other best practices that will allow them to earn more income, feed more people, and be more productive with their land. Water Projects: Throughout 2020, staff worked on repairing a broken down water source in the village of Ruvu, which is home to over 3,000 people. Although the main problem with the existing Ruvu water source was the broken windmill, the survey done by technicians and the local government water engineer found many other damaged pieces to the system. After months of planning and work, they expect a re-engineered system and access to clean water in 2021. Education Programs: The SAME LEARNING CENTER (SLC) continues to make an impact on the most vulnerable children in and around Same Town. Programming was paused while schools closed during the pandemic, but students and their families were still visited by staff who provided with food and supply relief. Once the Tanzanian government re-opened schools, students of the SLC resumed twice-weekly afterschool meetings and Saturday morning sessions where they to received tutoring in English by our staff of English teachers, along with nutritious meals, snacks, other support services. Empower Tanzania provides each student in the program with a school uniform, shoes, and stationary. We also provide other basic necessities monthly like soap, shoe-polish, toothpaste, oil gel, and menstrual pads. Along with academic tutoring, other life skills like gardening, sports and games, cooking, computers, phone skills, personal hygiene, self-defense techniques, balanced diet, and mathematics are taught. In addition, we help students struggling with mental health issues by giving them the care and assistance they needed to succeed academically.
